Places We Won't Walk

Bruno Major

Sunlight dances off the leaves
Birds of red colour the trees
Flowers filled with buzzing bees
In places we won't walk

Neon lights shine bold and bright
Buildings grow to dizzy heights
People come alive at night
In places we won't walk

Children cry and laugh and play
Slowly hair will turn to grey
We will smile to end each day
In places we won't walk

Family look on in awe
Petals decorate the floor
Waves gently stroke the shore
In places we won't walk

Children cry and laugh and play
Slowly hair will turn to grey
We will smile to end each day
In places we won't walk

She Is Gone

David Harkins

You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

A message from Annette to family & friends

December 2020

To all friends and family near and far, we wish you a very Merry Christmas!

To sum up this year, two words come to mind: Gratitude and Hope.

Gratitude for friends and family who have helped us through this year, be that on walks together (you know who you are!) via messages or online chats.

And... Hope that we'll be able to hug each other soon again.
